

AccuShoot PFX — Private Fire Experience

Mission Readiness Through Data-Driven Firearms Training

Modern law enforcement and military organizations need more than qualification scores. They need a clear understanding of readiness, performance trends, and training effectiveness.

AccuShoot PFX (Private Fire Experience) transforms the AccuShoot LFX platform into a comprehensive readiness management solution that helps commanders, instructors, and training leaders measure proficiency, validate training outcomes, and maintain compliance across their organization.

From Qualification to Readiness

A qualification score captures a moment. AccuShoot PFX captures a career.

By tracking performance across training sessions, qualifications, and exercises, PFX helps organizations:

- Measure readiness over time
- Identify performance gaps early
- Validate remediation efforts
- Monitor qualification and compliance status
- Improve training effectiveness through objective data

Command-Level Visibility

AccuShoot PFX provides actionable insights at every level:

Idividual Readiness

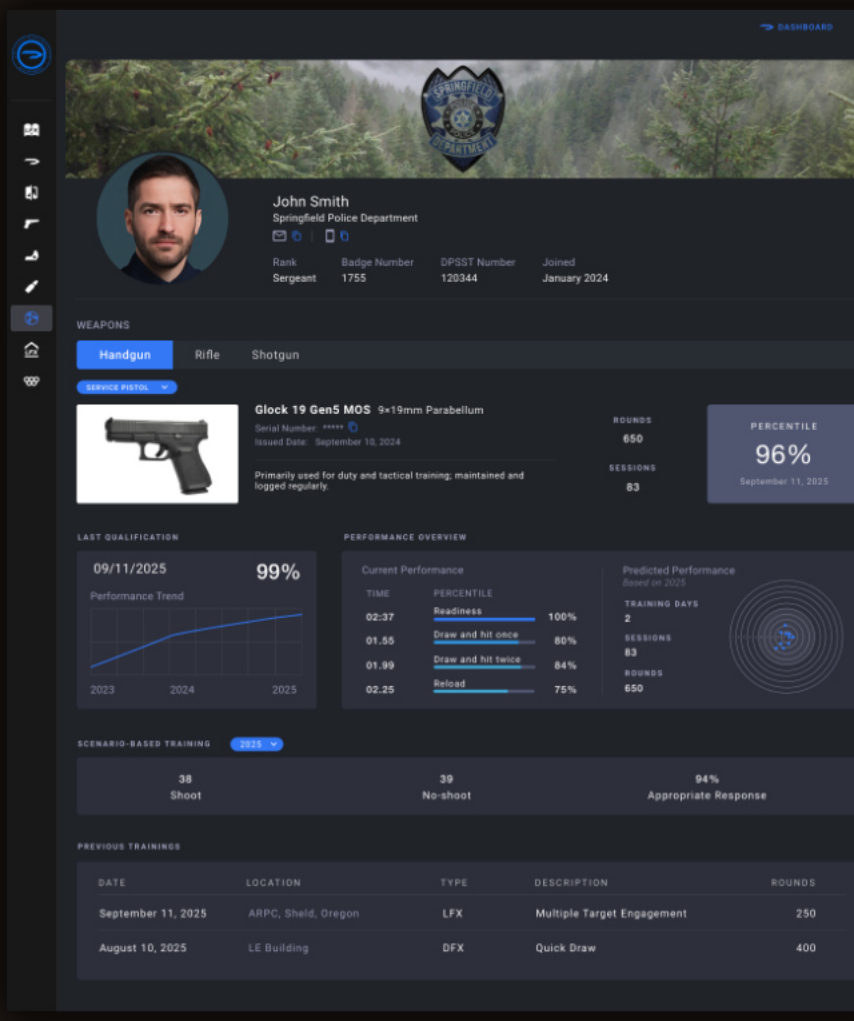

Performance history, qualifications, training participation, and readiness indicators.

Team

Unit performance trends, strengths, weaknesses, and remediation needs.

Organizational Readiness

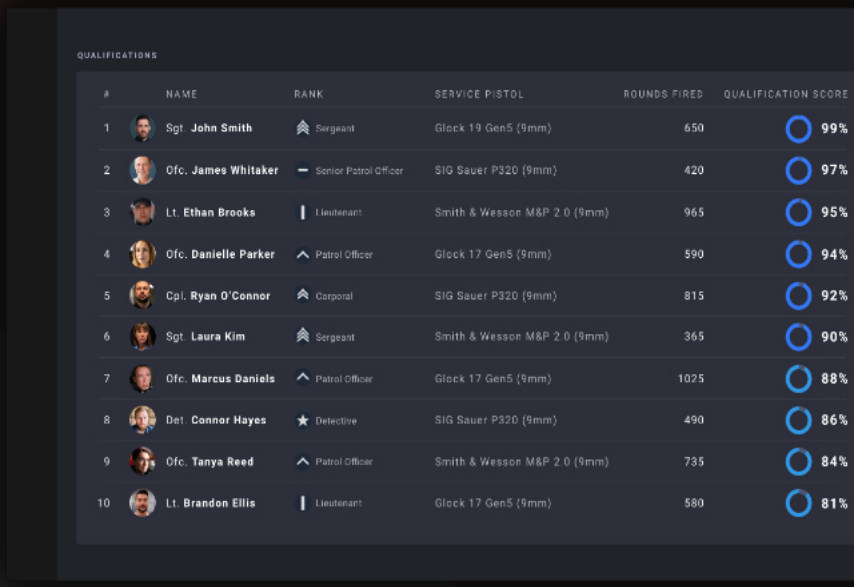

Compliance reporting, readiness metrics, and training effectiveness across the entire command.

Turn Training Data into Better

AccuShoot PFX helps agencies answer critical

- Which training programs produce results?
- Who needs additional training?
- Are personnel maintaining proficiency?
- Are resources being used effectively?
- Is the organization truly ready?

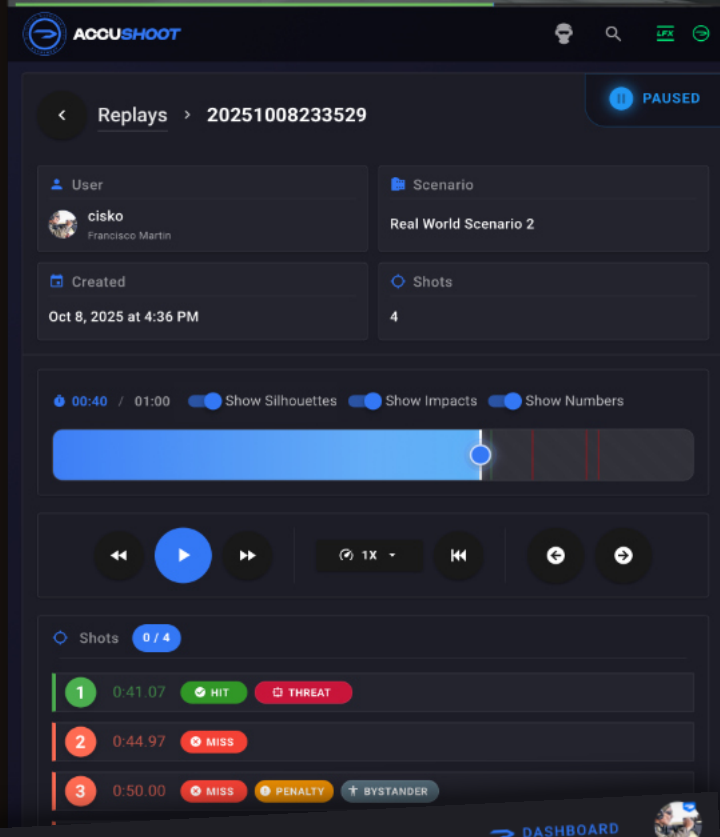

Training decisions become evidence-based rather than assumption-based.
